In Dedication

A college such as Hinds is nothing more than buildings on a plot of ground unless there are people to give it personality and identity. The 1971 EAGLE is dedicated to those who have given of themselves to Hinds in hopes of bringing happiness and meaningfulness into the students way of life.

In giving 30 years of combined service, not only academically but socially, to what Hinds is today, the satisfaction of fulfilling one's ideals, and the hopes of tomorrow, have helped to generate an atmosphere of energetic youth.

The following pages of this year's EAGLE records that which is so much a part of everyday life by those who have tried to instill the ideas of individualism through togetherness.

The Eagle Staff takes great pride in dedicating the 1971 EAGLE to Leslie and Geneva Reeves.

A Decade of Service

After completing five years as President of Hinds Junior College, Dr. Robert M. Mayo has become one of the most respected junior college presidents in the state. His outstanding achievements coupled with his individual accomplishments have progressed Hinds' outlook toward the future.

Ten years ago Dr. Mayo brought to Hinds an impressive record of leadership. As others of these honors have since materialized to lengthen that record, president Mayo has made plans for Hinds and has had the determination to make those plans reality. With this man's capabilities and sincerity, Hinds continues to reign as Mississippi's most progressive junior college.

Dr. and Mrs. Mayo have celebrated their tenth anniversary at Hinds, five as its president and first lady.

Dr. Mayo is pictured with two former presidents of the college, George M. McLendon who served from 1938 to 1965, and G. J. Cain who served from 1930 to 1938.

A college president's work consists of many various details, one of which is an abundance of paper work.

Dr. Moyo and administrator Rosser Woll, left, view construction plans of the college's student union building.

R. E. Woolley, president of the Hinds Trustees; A. P. Fartheree, director of vocational-technical training and Dr. Mayo review the progress of the new Jackson Branch.

An inspection of the new women's dormitory by the board of trustees is conducted by Dr. Mayo.

Dr. Maya officially opened the homecoming activities at a mass rally sponsored by the student government.

A college president's job is always filled with speaking engagements and the greeting of new students to the college.

Occasionally after the faculty meetings, making speeches, recruiting students, reviewing building plans, and examining budgets, Dr. Mayo finds time for relaxation.

In Memoriam

Albert B. Rowan

Hinds Band Director
1955-1970

That friendly smile and patient mood that showed you that he cared, the quality of pride displayed, the pride a school did share.

Such describes Albert Rowan, a man we all will miss, a man whose dedication to his students remained his utmost wish. It is now in our time of sorrow we face the realization, that love knows not its own far depth till the hour of separation.

He showed us through his work or play by each day he lived, that it is when you give of yourself that you truly give. His humor, ability, determination, a life that was surely blessed, is what gave to us an unforgettable fifteen years of success.

Though none can replace the thoughts left in our hearts and minds, his very memory will give us hope, we'll find strength in what remains behind. And though he is gone from life as we know it and is no longer here in unity, we know that it is not the end at all, only God's opportunity.

JOHNNIE WARD

As we finally come to what seems an inevitable end of this yearbook it is with mixed emotions. I am both glad it is over, but still I know that it is an experience that I will never forget. No one, and I mean no one will ever know what this job of putting a yearbook together entails. It is staying up till 3:00 a.m. or even all night to meet a deadline, the frustration of scheduling, taking and retaking group shots, and all the other many tasks of yearbook production. I would first like to thank Suzy Thomas and an excellent staff that had everybody at the right place at the right time. Without this help this yearbook would not be near what it is. After you have read it you can see what I mean. Dick Martin supplied many brilliant ideas that made the book fall together. Our sponsor, Bob Hodges, was always there to lend a helping hand, and to speak with the voice of experience.

I wish that all of you could see what has to be done to put out a yearbook. This year from the editor down was a completely green staff. With a lot of practicing, redoing pages, and often using those naughty little words as we struggled. Although we had many long hours we seemed to have a good-time through-out the year, and we are giving this book to you the students in hopes that some of your expectations were met. I would especially like to thank the students of H.J.C. because it is your book, and your pictures that fill this book.

In all honesty, it was my sincere pleasure to put this book out for you, and I hope that you are satisfied with the result.
